Reservation of space for ashes, before or at time of death	£90.00

MONUMENTS.

N.B. Prior written authority from the Parish Council is required before any form of monument is placed in Oakington Cemetery. To obtain the necessary authority details of the proposed materials, style and inscription, together with the proposed locations shall be submitted in writing to the Clerk of the Parish Council. The Parish Council reserves the right to refuse any design or inscription that it judges will cause undue interference with the general maintenance of the Cemetery, or could be viewed as being offensive. In all cases, the decision of the Parish Council shall be final and binding and the Council reserves the right to refuse to explain or justify its decision in respect of any individual case.

For the right to place a stone no larger than 450mm square and level with the natural ground surface, or a headstone not exceeding 1 metre high.	£127.00
For the right to add or alter an inscription on an existing monument.	£87.00
For the right to place a vase or similar object, with or without an inscription.	£66.00

N.B. 1. Monuments that do not fit into the above categories are not permitted.

N.B. 2. The granting of permission to erect a monument in the Oakington Cemetery is conditional upon the Parish Council not being held responsible for any damage to that monument, regardless of cause. Equally, in the case that a monument becomes dangerous the Parish Council may require that it be put to right, or removed at no cost to the Parish Council, which reserves the right to do so themselves after failing to get those responsible to do so.

Charge for default of cemetery regulations	£399.00
